

Audit Committee Mandate

The Canadian Securities Administrators' National Instrument 52-110, Audit Committees defines specific requirements for Audit Committees of reporting issuers which applies to Clearwater Seafoods Incorporated (the "Corporation" or "Clearwater"). One of these requirements is that the Corporation's Audit Committee (the "Committee") have a written charter that sets out its mandate and responsibilities.

1. Purpose

The Committee is ultimately responsible for the policies and practices relating to integrity of financial and regulatory reporting of the Corporation as well as internal controls to achieve the objectives of safeguarding of corporate assets; reliability of information; compliance with policies and laws; and overseeing the external auditor. The Committee is also responsible for identifying principal risks of the business and ensuring appropriate risk management techniques are in place.

The Committee charges management with developing and implementing procedures to:

- (a) ensure internal controls are appropriately designed, implemented and monitored; and
- (b) ensure reporting and disclosure of required information is complete, accurate, and timely.

The Committee will make recommendations to the board of directors of the Corporation (the "Board") regarding items relating to financial and regulatory reporting and the system of internal controls, following the execution of the Committee's responsibilities as described in this mandate.

2. Composition

The Committee will consist of at least 3 directors, all of whom shall qualify as independent directors pursuant to applicable securities laws. The Board may approve the appointment of a non-independent director as a member of the Committee if such appointment is recommended by the Corporate Governance Committee and meets the requirements under all applicable securities laws and regulatory rules for membership on the Committee.

All members of the Committee will be financially literate as defined by applicable securities laws. If a member upon appointment to the Committee is not financially literate as required, the person must become financial literate within a reasonable period of time following their appointment, as determined by the Board.

Any independent member who loses their independence status will be required to resign from the Committee within the applicable period of time required under applicable securities laws.

The Board will replace the member within such period with an independent director recommended by the Corporate Governance Committee. If it is the Chair of the Committee who loses independent status, the Corporate Governance Committee shall immediately designate another member of the Committee to act as Chair.

Members of the Committee and its Chair will be appointed annually by the Board, on the recommendation of the Corporate Governance Committee.

Committee members may be removed or replaced at any time by the Board, upon the recommendation of the Corporate Governance Committee, and will, in any event, cease to be a member of the Committee upon ceasing to be a member of the Board. Where a vacancy occurs at any time in the membership of the Committee, it may be filled by the Board upon the recommendation of the Corporate Governance Committee.

3. Procedures

The Committee will meet at least four times per year and at least once every fiscal quarter or more frequently as it deems necessary to fulfill its responsibilities.

A majority of Committee members, present in person, by telephone, or by other permissible communication facilities will constitute a quorum. Attendance for the meetings will be recorded and any materials that are intended to be reviewed or discussed will be distributed in advance. The Committee will appoint a secretary, who need not be a member of the Committee or a director of the Corporation, to keep minutes, which will document the actions, decisions and recommendations from each meeting. Minutes will be sent to all Committee members on a timely basis.

The Committee shall report to the Board following each meeting.

The Committee shall act only on the affirmative vote of a majority of the members at a meeting or by unanimous written consent. The Committee may establish subcommittees consisting of one or more members to carry out such duties as the Committee may delegate.

The Chair will have a vote on all matters but will not have any casting or tie-breaking vote. The Chair will call the meetings and set an agenda in consultation with management and the Chair of the Board.

Notice of meetings shall be given to the external auditor of the Corporation, and meetings can be convened at the request of the external auditor.

4. Authority

The Committee has the authority to engage and set the compensation of independent counsel and other advisors, at the Corporation's expense, as it determines necessary to carry out its duties.

The Committee has the authority to communicate directly and meet with the external auditor, without management involvement. The external auditor reports directly to the Committee.

5. Specific Duties & Responsibilities

- (a) The Committee is directly responsible for overseeing the work of the external auditor engaged for the purpose of preparing or issuing the auditor's report or performing other audit, review or attest services for the Corporation, including the resolution of disagreements between management and the external auditor regarding financial reporting.
